New Special Issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies On-Line Early: ‘Racialization and Religion in the study of Antisemitism and Islamophobia’ available through ERS iFirst

Edited by Nasar Meer (Northumbria University)

This special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies critically explores the question of race in the study of Antisemitism and Islamophobia. Drawing on new and established interdisciplinary and cross-national expertise, it problematizes the extent to which the racialization of Jewish and Muslim minorities is studied in distinct silos as a series of internal debates. With contributions from Pnina Werbner, Tony Kushner, Ray Taras, Brian Klug, Francois Soyer, Simon Weaver and Nasar Meer, the collection makes a series of historically informed, theoretical and empirical interventions that challenge prevailing assumptions.
